

FIRST PATRON begins to walk past BOUNCER. BOUNCER looks down at FIRST PATRON's crotch and stops him.

BOUNCER

(to FIRST PATRON)

Hold up, sir. (to MANAGER) Boss, the glasses aren't working right any more.

MANAGER

What do you mean they're not working?

BOUNCER

Instead of telling me if he's headed for the right restroom, they're showing me a cartoon.

MANAGER

A cartoon?

BOUNCER

(pointing)

Yeah. He's got this cartoon down in his genital region. It's a...it's a dancing Pokemon.

MANAGER

Let me see those glasses.

BOUNCER removes glasses and MANAGER puts them on.

(unsure)

You just need to reset the default settings.

MANAGER taps the frames and stares at FIRST PATRON's crotch. MANAGER looks confused.

BOUNCER

I liked it better when the State just used color-coding.

MANAGER

(tapping again)

Oh. Here's the explanation about the update in the help menus. (pointing to FIRST MAN's crotch) He's got a Squirtle the Turtle. Buddy, you're cleared for this restroom.

FIRST PATRON exits to the restroom

BOUNCER

There are help menus on the glasses?

MANAGER returns the glasses to BOUNCER. BOUNCER puts them on.

MANAGER

Yeah. Nintendo designed the glasses to automatically take updates and reset the defaults, apparently picking our busy nights. We can't turn that function off.

BOUNCER

But how do I get the Help menu?

MANAGER

Double tap the left side of your frame and wink your right eye.

BOUNCER follows those instructions.

BOUNCER

Oh. I see it. Squirtle the Turtle matches the old blue color. Hey. This could be fun. (beat) Gotta catch 'em all. (goofy laugh)

MANAGER

So I can trust you on your own now?

BOUNCER looks at MANAGER's crotch, points at it and laughs.
