

Who we are

The Cary Playwrights' Forum's (CPF) mission is to help playwrights and aspiring playwrights of Cary and surrounding areas in North Carolina to develop as dramatic writers.

Founded in 2007, we are a 501(c)(3) non-profit arts organization supported by tax-deductible donations and operated by volunteer Board members, playwrights, actors and theatrical support staff.

We offer regular feedback sessions with other playwrights, actors, and directors; the opportunity to collaborate with allied artists in staged readings or productions of their original work; and educational workshops.

To learn more about our organization, volunteer opportunities or to subscribe to our newsletter, please visit our website at www.caryplaywrightsforum.org.
