

A FIFTH OF PLAYSLAM!

Presented by the Cary Playwrights' Forum – 5/2020

'FIRST 9' WORKSHEET

Use these two forms to help you later determine your top six favorite plays from the 18. After each performance, you can rate the play by number. These numbers are for your reference only.

Scribble a few notes about each play while the emcee prattles on with his awful jokes, before the next play begins.

#1) Can I Interest You

They're selling, but she ain't buying.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

#2) This is Just to Say

William Carlos Williams, doctor/poet, pays a price for one of his most famous poems.

"1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

#3) The Next Big Square Thing

What every Broadway show needs: musical numbers.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

#4) You Have To See It To Believe It

Come on down to the Invisibility Shop, where they have deals so amazing – you won't believe your eyes!

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

#5) Dog Do You

A mediation between a pet owner and the tenant's association of an apartment complex regarding an 'unauthorized deposit', goes awry.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

#6) baggage

Putting the 'Age' in baggage as you get older.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

#7) Hot Tub For Mango

9-year old Julia is told that her pet project isn't up to code.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

#8) Marvel Pitch Meeting

The cape is mightier than the pen.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

#9) Hide and Go Seek

Who will get the ultimate hiding spot before it's too late?

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

